

Coming in June - Life Matters -

Meaningful Death: Illusion or Possibility? with Reverend Dr. Robert L. Gram. For more information click here

---

The Art and Soul of Comfort Food - Thursday, April 18

A very special dinner party to engage both your senses and sense of heritage. Tilda's Kitchen will supply a flavorful array of traditional comfort foods typically served at memorial gatherings. To help us all talk about death differently, Liza Schoenfein, author of the blog Life, Death, and Dinner will provide insight and stimulate conversation among participants. Click here for information and to register.

Touchstone Writers Workshop
Each Wednesday at 10 - 11:30am
from May 1st to July 3rd
at Circle Home, 100 Wurts Street,
Kingston

Circle of Friends for the Dying hosts a workshop led by Ann Hutton for both beginners and more seasoned writers who want to tell their unique story. Whether that means honing a piece for publication or creating a legacy will to pass down to friends and family, group members writing together and sharing their work can create something magical. Click here for more information and click here to register.

---

Dealing with Death Artfully Sunday May 5, 10am to 5pm

Enjoy a day rich with creative exploration as you write and share your personal obituary and playfully explore your own end of life experience.

For more information and to register click here.

